Entertainment Is Much Enjoyed

An entertainment given last Friday evening in the basement of Oyen United church was thoroughly enjoyed by a large audience.

The program was a well varied one, with the following taking part: Walter Peterson, monologue; Mrs. W. A. Bishop and Rev. E. F. Kemp, song with violin accompaniment; the choir in a medley of old songs arranged under the title of "The Old Spinning Wheel". The setting for this number was pleasingly arranged, the members of the choir all appearing in old fashioned costumes. W. B. Pauls, vocal solos. Mrs. J. P. Rorabeck, monologue. J. W. Robinson, recitation and monologue. Mrs. Robert Nisbet, vocal solos. J. Shields, accordion selection and song. Larry and Everet Thygesen, song accompanied by their sister Minnie. Frank Neid and Art Horne, selections on banjo and violin. Robert Nisbet, vocal solo. Community singing. Messrs Austen, Dunford, Neid and Nisbet, male quartette. Mrs. F. E. Neid was accompanist for the choir. At the conclusion of the program, Mr. R. J. Scott, chairman, tendered thanks on behalf of the board of stewards to all who took part in the program or who had in any way assisted in making the entertainment such a success.

An entertainment will be given on the night of February 23, under the auspices of the Sunday school, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Excel Items

The novelty event, recently played off at the Excel curling club, was won by Paul Gruse's rink. High lights of the competition were: a five end laid by Seymour Heading in the first end he skip-

Here and There

The first event in the celebration of the Centennial of the City of Toronto, to be held this year, took place at the Royal York Hotel in the closing week of 1933 when Mayor Stewart handed out loaves of "Centennial" bread to a large crowd of interested recipients.

Emile St. Goddard and Leonhard Seppala, heroes of many hotly fought Dog Derbies, will fight it out again in the Quebec Dog Derby of February 23-25 next to be held in Quebec City. Many other teams have already registered and special training events for the big show are being held.

A tip for the encouragement of the younger ski generation is given by the Canadian Pacific Railway in the company's inauguration of a special school age ski excursion at low rates to the Laurentians just outside Montreal. The special was heavily patronized by the youngsters.

Statistics recently issued by the Bureau of Railway News and Statistics show that the safest way to travel is by railroad. In a year's operation of Canadian and United States railroads only one passenger was killed out of a total of 469,048,529 persons carried a total of 16,941,246,109 miles.

The old belief that women cannot wear high heels without injury to posture and health was described as "bunk" by J. S. Brower, shoe expert of Milwaukee, delegate to the National Shoe Retailers Association convention recently held at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

A Canadian inter-collegiate ski meet, unique development in Eastern Canada as far as skiing is concerned, will be held at the Seignior Club, Montebello, end of January. Toronto University, Ottawa University, McGill and St. Patrick's College in Ottawa are among the collegiate teams to be represented.

Snow shovels and twenty below in many places in Canada are replaced by mashes and 55 above at Victoria B.C., these days where the sixth annual midwinter golf tournament swings into action at the Royal Colwood Course February 19-24. Enquiries and early entries from ardent golfers indicate that again this year the tournament will be a big success.

About Town and Country

Weather and ice permitting, the annual open bonspiel will be commenced next week. Entries must be in not later than 6 p.m. Saturday, February 17.

The annual meeting of the ratepayers of the municipal district of Cereel, will be held in Excel school on Saturday, February 17, commencing at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. Edgar Dial of Calgary is a business visitor in town today.

On Friday, February 23, an entertainment will be given in the basement of Oyen United church, sponsored by the Sunday school. You are cordially invited to attend.

The whist drive and dance held last Monday under the auspices of the C.W.L. was well attended and all who were there report having an enjoyable time. Mrs. S. A. Miller and Mr. John Gripp were winners of the first prizes and Miss Pauline Ostuz and Mr. P. A. Beallargon got the consolation prizes.

Emile St. Goddard, several times winner of the Eastern International Dog Sled Derby, has again entered for the event, which is to be held this month at Quebec City February 23, 24 and 25. Over twenty other entries have been received, many of them drivers of international fame.

The district continues to bask in sunny weather, with temperatures ranging from a few degrees of frost at night to the "low forties" above at mid-day. Much of the snow has disappeared and many sloughs are showing considerable water. Rural roads, while not impassable, are in bad condition. In town the ditches are filled with water and all roads very muddy.

Rev. and Mrs. E. F. Kemp entertained the choir and the husbands and wives of the members of the choir at a delightful St. Valentine dinner and party at the manse on February 14.
